Course Description

This course serves as an introduction to leadership theory and practice. The course will examine the research and literature regarding organizational leadership and provide an opportunity for examining and developing personal leadership skills. The course features relevant readings, case studies, projects, and class discussions. The purpose of this course is to identify the fundamental leadership behaviors that enable people to excel in their careers and to help students apply these behaviors to personal and professional success. The course builds from the basic premise that leadership is learned. It looks at the theory and practice of leadership at the individual and organizational levels. The course will explore definitions of leadership, the importance of leadership, leadership styles, the role of vision and integrity, the importance of giving and receiving feedback, how to lead change and solve problems, effective teamwork, and communication strategies.

Prerequisites

None.

Learning Goals

The goals of this course are to:

- Analyze different forms of value (economic, meaning, and social) and the role value, experience, and research play in effective leadership.
- Identify the theoretical foundations for successful leadership in today's organizations.
- Compare and contrast the major leadership theories and discuss the key points and application methods of each theory in the workplace.
- Discuss the context and outcome of applied leadership in selected situations.
- Analyze and interpret a particular performance-based organizational issue, develop a solution to the issue at hand, and apply appropriate leadership theories in the given situation.
- Given different organizational scenarios, discuss and analyze the responsibility, privilege, value, culture, ethical considerations, and the appropriate use of authority and power.
- Synthesize best practices to create a plan for engaging, implementing, and sustaining planned organizational change.
- Identify principles by which successful leaders operate.
- Identify your personal philosophy and style and expand this for interpersonal influence in your organization.

Evaluation

The student's final grade will be based on participation, a final exam, a final paper, and assignments.

- Participation: 25 points
- Leadership measurement instrument analysis: 14 points
- Completion of four case-study assignments: 16 points
- Final professional paper: 25 points
- Comprehensive final exam: 20 points
- Total: 100 points

Discussion Board Etiquette

The purpose of discussion boards is to allow students to freely exchange ideas and participation is highly encouraged. It is important that we always remain respectful of one another's viewpoints and positions and, when necessary, agree to disagree, respectfully. While active and frequent participation is encouraged, cluttering a discussion board with inappropriate, irrelevant, or insignificant material will not earn additional points and may result in receiving less than full credit. Although frequency is not unimportant, content of the message is paramount. Please remember to cite all sources—when relevant—in order to avoid plagiarism.

Proctored Assessment

There is a proctored assessment requirement in this course. For additional information, please go to the Assignments section in Blackboard and scroll to the Proctored Exam Approval Application item.

Grading Scale

A = 92%–100%

B = 84%–91%

C = 76%–83%

F = 0–75%

Attendance

This course is asynchronous, meaning we will not meet at a particular time each week. Even though we will not meet face-to-face in a physical classroom, participation on discussion boards is required and paramount to your success.

Late Work

Late work will only be accepted in the case in which the student sends a formal request to the instructor (via e-mail) and is given specific permission to submit work after the due date. Work submitted up to 48 hours late will receive a 20% penalty unless permission to submit late was granted. Work submitted after 48 hours of the due date will not be accepted.

Learning Groups

There will be no learning groups for this course.

Academic Integrity at Northwestern

Students are required to comply with University regulations regarding academic integrity. If you are in doubt about what constitutes academic dishonesty, speak with your instructor or graduate coordinator before the assignment is due and/or examine the University Web site. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an exam, obtaining an unfair advantage, and plagiarism (e.g., taking material from readings without citation or copying another student's paper). Failure to maintain academic integrity will result in a grade sanction, possibly as severe as failing and being required to retake the course, and could lead to a suspension or expulsion from the program. Further penalties may apply. For more information, visit: <www.scs.northwestern.edu/student/issues/academic_integrity.cfm>.

Plagiarism is one form of academic dishonesty. Students can familiarize themselves with the definition and examples of plagiarism, by visiting the site <www.northwestern.edu/uacc/plagiar.html>. Myriad other sources can be found online, as well.

Some assignments in this course may be required to be submitted through SafeAssign, a plagiarism detection and education tool. You can find an explanation of the tool at <<http://wiki.safeassign.com/display/SAFE/How+Does+SafeAssign+Work>>. In brief, SafeAssign compares the submitted assignment to millions of documents in very large databases. It then generates a report showing the extent to which text within a paper is very similar or identical to pre-existing sources. The user can then see how or whether the flagged text is cited appropriately, if at all. SafeAssign also returns a percentage score, indicating the percentage of the submitted paper that is similar or identical to pre-existing sources. High scores are not necessarily bad, nor do they necessarily indicate plagiarism, since the score doesn't take into account how or whether material is cited. (If a paper consisted of just one long quote that was cited appropriately, the score would be 100%. This wouldn't be plagiarism, due to the appropriate citation. However, just submitting one long quote would probably be a pretty bad paper.) Low scores are not necessarily good, nor do they necessarily indicate a lack of plagiarism. (If a 50-page paper had all original material, except for one short quote that was not cited, the score might be around 1%. But, not citing a quotation would still be plagiarism.)

SafeAssign includes an option in which the student can submit a paper and see the resultant report before submitting it to the instructor as a final copy. This ideally will help students better understand and avoid plagiarism.
